

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

January 21, 1998 LB 892, 893

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and that's exactly what they did. Osborn (phonetic) came back as an earthworm, Ben Franklin came back as a robin and he ate the earthworm. Sometimes when we ask for what we want and get it, then it turns out not to be exactly what we expected it to be. Can I say for sure at this moment that I will deal with every one of these bills? I know whether I will or not. But to give that little zest of life, zest in life to my brothers and sisters here, "I'm not a gonna tell ya." I said on occasion you just have to wait and see what's going to happen. I'm not going to put any motions on this particular bill. Maybe I will generate a few emotions, but we have had no commotion yet and we will see what we shall see.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Coordsen to close.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Madam President. I would move for the advancement of LB 892.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Coordsen. The question before the body is the advancement of LB 892. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 892.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: LB 892 advances. LB 893.

CLERK: (LB) 893, Madam President, by Senator Coordsen. (Read title.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Chair recognizes Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Madam President. I would move for the advancement of LB 893. Again, to reiterate what the Clerk said, this is a short bill that eliminates one phrase from statute, "this act", and it's no longer needed because of other changes we made. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Coordsen. Senator
